Steve Archer, a contemporary Christian music vocalist, will perform in concert at OBU on Saturday, Feb. 8, at 6:30 p.m. in Mitchell Hall Auditorium. The concert is sponsored by the Ouachita Student Entertainment and Lecture Fund. Tickets are $4 for OBU students, faculty and staff; $5 for members of church groups; and $6 for the general public. All seating is reserved.

Archer, a native of southern California, performed with his brothers and sister in a group known as the Archers, which was one of the first ensembles to perform what was later to be known as contemporary Christian music. The group toured extensively both in the United States and abroad and performed once for President and Mrs. Jimmy Carter at the White House. Television credits for the group came from appearances on the Mike Douglas Show and the Jerry Lewis Telethon.

In 1980, the group participated in a project known as "The Lord's Prayer," a musical written by Reba Rambo and Dony McGuire. The song earned the group a Grammy Award and an appearance on The Grammy Award Telecast. The following year they were again asked to appear on the show as their album "Spreadin' Like Wildfire" was nominated. After 13 years and eight albums with The Archers, Steve embarked on his solo career in 1982 with the release of his first solo album entitled "Solo." His second album entitled "Through His Eyes" saw the title song jump to the number one slot on the contemporary Christian music chart. Recently, Archer released his third album entitled "Action" featuring a duet with Marilyn McCoo called "Safe."

Rev. C.D. Edwards, pastor of St. John Baptist Church of Little Rock, will be speaking in Chapel this week on Feb. 4.

Agape will hold tryouts for all male parts Tuesday, Feb. 4 from 7:30pm - 9:30 pm and Thursday, Feb. 6 from 8:00 pm - 10:00pm in Berry Chapel.

Students planning to travel for Spring Break should take advantage of the price wars of the various airlines. For more information contact Travel Plus at 246-8079 or Small World Travel at 246-6756.
